iNavigation®

As we navigate into the 21st century, the incorporation of technology with traditional navigation methods can lead to greater accuracy and confidence. Explore how to combine the latest, most popular tablet and smart phone apps with traditional methods to stay on the right course, the modern way.

Getting Your Captain's License

Between the USCG requirements for sea time, physicals, applications and examination, getting a captain's license can seem daunting. Annapolis School of Seamanship's expert captains will discuss the ins and outs of becoming licensed captain.

Navigating the ICW

Whether you're heading for Key West or the Great Loop, one leg of the voyage is generally the Intracoastal Waterway (ICW). Chesapeake Bay Magazine's cruising editor and full time liveaboard Jody Schroath will lead a discussion about the joys and pitfalls of cruising inland waters.

Docking De-Stressed

Is docking your vessel causing you stress and anxiety? Let the Annapolis School of Seamanship show you the ropes, tricks, and techniques to make docking easy.

Marine Diesel Basics

Captains from the Annapolis School of Seamanship, will run through the basics of marine diesel engines and troubleshooting some common problems.

Weekend on the Chesapeake Bay

Join Chesapeake Bay Magazine's John Stefancik to explore Chesapeake towns that make for easy one and two-night weekend trips on almost any boat. We'll visit ports loaded with history and good restaurants, and some fine marinas, too. Plan a summer to remember!

Seminars are held in the Arnold Room on the lobby floor of the Annapolis Waterfront Hotel. Enter from Compromise Street or through the Pusser's show gate.

For more info, call Annapolis School of Seamanship at (410) 263-8848.

Limited seating available. First come, first served. Seminar schedule and speakers are subject to change
